Foreword

We, the staff of the 1966 SWORD AND SHIELD, have chosen as our theme "We follow the Knights of old in our quest for the Chalice of Life". We hope, throughout the following years at Knapp High School, the students and faculty will continue to strive for excellence in scholastic achievement, club activities, and sports.

Mr. Bartholomew, new to Knapp this year, came to us from Warrenton. He attended Wake Forest and East Carolina College, and has his B.S. Degree. He attended East Carolina last summer before moving with Mrs. Bartholomew and small daughter, Betsy, to Currituck, where he assumed his present duties. Mr. Bartholomew's hobby is sports. He enjoys football, basketball and baseball.

This year at Knapp we have a new activity bus which was given to the school by Mr. Walter Davis. The bus is used to carry football players, basketball players, baseball players, and cheerleaders to away games. The students really enjoy riding together to the games. The Athletic Department really appreciates the bus.

D. Edge, M. Evans, T. Chalk, R. Gilbert, B. Roberts, H. D. Newbern, J. Romm, S. Powers, D. Freeman, E. Younts, J. Guard, B. Romm, P. Forbes, D. Midgett, J. Broom, C. Balance, W. Saunders, B. Walker, C. Grandy, E. Simons, L. Kroger, E. O'Neal, Mr. Ferguson.

Now wait a minute--Let's talk this thing over.

Dalton at ballet practice, and Billy is watching.

Now look here . . . . I'm trying to shoot.

Come on Earl, put it in. This ballet position is killing me.

I hope they're not supposed to be doing a cheer.

That's right, Midgett. Don't let a couple of 185 pound tackles stop ya!

Why is everybody looking so shocked? She plays great with her eyes closed.

Now that's what I call getting down to the real "nitty gritty".

Let's go Knights, go!
